

Effective Assessment in Hoarding Situations

This workshop deals with effective short and long-term assessments in hoarding situations. The material is based on psychological, environmental, and risk factors as the fundamental basis for conceptual model development.